since James Barr's work in the 1960s the challenge for Hebrew scholars has been to continue to apply the insights of linguistic semantics to the study of biblical Hebrew this book begins by describing a range of approaches to semantic and grammatical analysis including structural semantics cognitive linguistics and cognitive metaphors frame semantics and William Croft's radical construction grammar it then seeks to integrate these formulating a dynamic approach to lexical semantic analysis based on conceptual frames using corpus annotation the model is applied to biblical Hebrew in a detailed study of a family of words related to exploring searching and seeking the results demonstrate the value and potential of cognitive frame based approaches to biblical hebrew lexicology my desire is that this book may help readers to know more fully the god of biblical revelation and as a result to proclaim god as the god of life who is god where is god how are we to speak of god gutierrez looks at these classic questions through a review of the bible and his answers challenge all christians to a deepening of faith esegesi biblica in corso volume a cura di j n aletti e j l ska nel centesimo anniversario della fondazione del biblico gli articoli raccolti in questo volume testimoniano con la grande varieta di metodi e approcci che li contraddistinguono i progressi compiuti dal nostro istituto nel campo della ricerca biblica e mostrano alcuni dei cambiamenti radicali avvenuti tra il 1909 e il 2009 biblical exegesis in progress the title of this volume celebrating the hundredth anniversary of the founding of the biblicum was chosen for one main reason that has to do with the word progress we would like to show how much exegesis has changed in our institute since its foundation on the 7th of may 1909 the first purpose of the pontifical biblical institute was in the mind of its founders to defend christian faith against the attacks of rationalist exegesis the atmosphere was that of a citadel beleaguered on all sides by enemies who wanted to undermine the biblical foundation of faith and religion but some of the sentinels very soon discovered that not all alleged enemies were real enemies many were by and large persons of good will sincerely trying to understand better the so called great code of our culture northrop frye the encyclical divino afflante spiritu 1943 certainly allowed people to let down drawbridges and to open some doors and some windows but the major change occurred with the second vatican council and the discussions that surrounded the redaction of what was to be the constitution dei verbum a couple of years later in 1968 the congress of the international organization for the study of the old testament iosot was held in rome and this is one of the many signs that the old citadel had been transformed into a place of lively dialogue and fruitful exchange the professors at the biblicum had realized that truth is not a bastion to be defended but rather a country to be explored and discovered anew every day the articles collected in this volume testify each in its own way with a great variety of methods and approaches to the progress made by our institute in biblical research and to some of the radical changes that had occurred between 1909 and 2009
