working with reluctant readers in grades 2-5 is especially important because it is in these early years that an appreciation of books and reading can be cultivated and nurtured. Fredericks presents guidelines for motivating and encouraging responsibility and comprehension in these children. The book contains more than 40 book units on titles selected to motivate the most reluctant reader such as The Beast in Miss Rooney's Room, The Bathwater Gang, Much Ado About Aldo, and Eating Ice Cream with a Werewolf.

The core of the everyday mathematics program for grades 1-6. The teacher's lesson guide provides teachers with easy-to-follow lessons organized by instructional unit as well as built-in mathematical content support. Lessons include planning and assessment tips as well as multilevel differentiation strategies to support all learners.

The grade 4 student text features concept development and problem solving as well as computational skills. Prominent use of manipulatives incorporating hands-on instruction, connections to other school subjects and to careers, the theme The Earth Below that integrates the patterns and numbers in God's creation, an easy-to-remember problem-solving guide, real-life examples, lessons focus on success for all students.

Teaching strategies are grounded in the NCTM standards and illustrated with real student work. In addition, the author provides a full range of concrete developmental activities that encourage future teachers to make math make sense for themselves as well as for their students. Believing that teachers who are comfortable with mathematics develop learners who are comfortable with mathematics, this author empowers preservice pre-K-4 teachers to teach math confidently by laying a solid foundation of math concepts and building on that foundation with engaging, meaningful, standards-based teaching methods. Integrated in this unique combined approach to teaching mathematics is a thorough discussion of math manipulatives as well as the use of technology, computer, and otherwise to assist today's mathematics teacher. For educators, aids, and parents responsible for teaching pre-K to fourth grade math.
