a deepening of the story of schindler's list a holocaust survivor recounts how he extracted nazi intel for oskar schindler in this moving memoir of courage and resistance new york times book review steven spielberg's oscar winning film schindler's list popularized the true story of a german businessman who manipulated his nazi connections and spent his personal fortune to save 1 200 jewish prisoners during the holocaust but few know those lists were made possible by a secret strategy designed by a young polish jew at the plaszow concentration camp mietek pemper's compelling and moving memoir tells the true story of how schindler's list really came to pass pemper was born in 1920 into a lively and cultivated jewish family for whom everything changed when the Germans invaded Poland, evicted from their home, they were forced into the Krakow ghetto and later into the nearby camp of Płaszów where Pemper's knowledge of the German language was put to use by the sadistic camp commandant. Among the forced to work as Goeth's personal stenographer from March 1943 to September 1944, an exceptional job for a Jewish prisoner. Pemper soon realized that he could use his position as the commandant's private secretary to familiarize himself with the inner workings of the Nazi bureaucracy and exploit the system to his fellow detainees' advantage. Once he gained access to classified documents, Pemper was able to pass on secret information for Schindler to compile his famous lists. After the war, Pemper was the key witness of the prosecution in the 1946 trial against Goeth and several other SS officers. The road to rescue stands as a historically authentic testimony of one man's unparalleled courage, defiance, and bittersweet victory over the Nazi regime.

The Nazis' persecution of the Jews during the Holocaust included the creation of prisoner hierarchies that forced victims to cooperate with their persecutors. Many in the camps and ghettos came to hold so-called privileged positions, and their behavior has often been judged as self-serving and harmful to fellow inmates. Such controversial figures constitute an intrinsically important, frequently misunderstood, and often taboo aspect of the Holocaust. Drawing on Primo Levi's concept of the grey zone, this study analyzes the passing of moral judgment on privileged Jews as represented by writers such as Raul Hilberg and in films including Claude Lanzmann's Shoah and Steven Spielberg's Schindler's List. Negotiating the problems and potentialities of representing the unrepresentable, this book engages with issues that are fundamental to present-day attempts to understand the Holocaust and deeply relevant to reflections on human nature.

This illustrated large-format book testifies to the legacy of Schindler's List and the USC Shoah Foundation. A 20th anniversary commemoration combines for the first time the behind-the-scenes story of the making of Schindler's List with the history of the remarkable organization inspired by that landmark film. Steven Spielberg's encounters with Holocaust survivors who visited the set and personally told him their stories set him on a quest to collect and preserve survivor testimony for generations to come. In 1994 he established the Shoah Foundation, and in the following four years nearly 52,000 eyewitness interviews were video-recorded in 56 countries and 32 languages. This commemorative book relates how the foundation accomplished this feat through a worldwide network of dedicated people, pioneering interview methods, and state-of-the-art technologies. A special 140-page section tells the riveting story of the film in photos, script excerpts, and the words of the cast and crew, including Liam Neeson, Ben Kingsley, and Spielberg. Drawing from the Universal Pictures archives and exclusive interviews, here are details on Spielberg's struggle to bring Oskar Schindler's story from novel to script to screen, the casting, cinematography, and especially what happened during the difficult shoot in Poland in 1993 on locations where actual events of the Holocaust occurred. Partnered with the University of Southern California since 2006, the USC Shoah Foundation has broadened its mission and now collects and preserves testimonies from other genocides, including those in Armenia, Cambodia, and Rwanda, while expanding its educational outreach, especially to young people. Its visual history archive, digitized, fully searchable, and hyperlinked to the Minute, has become the largest digital collection of its kind in the world. As Spielberg writes in his introduction, "I believe the work of the USC Shoah Foundation is the most important legacy of Schindler's List."
