postmodern ethics offers a new perspective on debates surrounding the role of the intellectual in italian society and provides an original reading of two important italian contemporary writers leonardo sciascia and antonio tabucchi it examines the ways in which the two writers use literature to engage with their socio political environment in a climate informed by the doubts and scepticism of postmodernism after traditional forms of impegno had been abandoned postmodern ethics explores ways in which tabucchi and sciascia further their engagement through embracing the very factors which problematized traditional committed writing such as the absence of fixed truths the inability of language to fully communicate ideas and intertextuality postmodern ethics provides an innovative new reading of tabucchi s works it challenges the standard view in critical literature that his writing may be divided into engaged texts which dialogue with society and postmodern texts which focus on literary interiority suggesting instead that socio political engagement underpins all of his works it also offers a new lens on sciascia s writing unpacking why sciascia unlike his contemporaries is able to maintain a belief in literature as a means of dialoguing with society postmodern ethics explores the ways in which tabucchi and sciascia approach issues of terrorism justice the anti mafia movement immigration and the value of reading in connected yet distinct ways suggesting that a close genealogy may be drawn between these two key intellectual figures tani s dissertation is the most stunningly original and intelligent i have encountered in 25years of teaching wrote the late novelist john gardner tani s argument says that the mystery story as written by hammett and others and touted by the french existentialists led to a new kind of novel and the old style mystery as written by for example agatha christie seemed a literary dead end a conservative if not reactionary game in recent years tani shows the seeming dead end has led to the most important literary movement now visible the ironic intellectual fiction of people ranging from borges and Barth to calvino and he proves that the spearhead of this movement is italian fiction as influenced by american mystery fiction at first glance the argument seems outrageous the brilliance of tani s thesis besides the original outrageous idea is that he solidly and systematically makes his case il romanzo dell'oscura crudele sicilia il dramma di un investigatore lucido che quanto più indagava tanto più nell'equivoco nell'ambiguità moralmente e sensualmente si sentiva coinvolto
