in 1931 the Chicago Tribune introduced the public to an exciting new comic strip destined to become a classic. Dick Tracy's creator, Chester Gould, would spend the next 46 years of his life developing the dynamic crime-fighting character, and his work on the strip won him the Reuben Award for outstanding cartoonist of the year in both 1959 and 1977. A revolutionary in the comics industry, Gould invented both a genre and an icon. The personal story of this pioneer cartoonist is now presented in a biography written by Gould's only child. Beginning with his young life in a three-room house in Pawnee, Oklahoma, this book traces all the steps Gould took to eventually achieve remarkable distinction at the top of his field. The early pages relate his ancestors' part in the Oklahoma Land Rush, drawing on the unpublished memoir of his father, Gilbert Gould. Chester Gould's story is then augmented by his own personal commentary taken directly from recorded conversations with his daughter. Throughout these conversations, Gould recounts the evolution of his career from painting advertisements on barn roofs at age 17 to documenting the violent crime life of Chicago from which he drew inspiration for his Dick Tracy strip. Discussion of his ambitions, disappointments, popular accomplishments, and family moments comprise a thorough account of Chester Gould's fascinating life. Appendices include commentary from his two grandchildren and a comprehensive list of his awards and distinctions, which included formal recognition from three American presidents.
