an account of personal experiences may be interesting for one or two reasons 1 because the writer is in some way remarkable 2 because not being at all remarkable he may be able to set forth in a concrete way the experience of a considerable body of men it is for the latter reason if at all that the present little sketch may justify its place in the volume of which it is to form a part i have been asked to contribute to the volume i suppose in order that i may show by the example of my own very imperfect but for that reason all the more typical experience how it is that a considerable number of persons have been led to resist the current of the age and to hold with mind and heart to that religion of supernatural redemption which has always hitherto been known as christianity in the pursuance of this task however i shall not seek to distinguish those elements in my experience which are peculiar from those which i share with others but shall simply set forth certain observations of mine in the concrete in the hope that here and there they may by way of example shed some light upon something less unimportant than they are in themselves it seems to me even with that explanation to be rather a presumptuous undertaking but the responsibility is the editor's not mine if the question be asked how it has come about that contrary to the majority of the men of our day i am a believer in the truth of the bible and an adherent of the redemptive religion which the bible presents the answer will be found to a far greater extent than in any other one place in the home in baltimore in which in company with my brothers arthur w machen jr and thomas machen i was brought up my father who died in 1915 at the age of eighty eight and my mother who died in 1931 at the age of eighty two were both christians from them i learned what christianity is and how it differs from certain modern substitutes i also learned that christian conviction can go hand in hand with a broad outlook upon life and with the pursuit of learning islam and christianity are they headed for conflict or conciliation from the earliest days of recorded history conflict has been an integral part of human life although conflict and crisis are painful they are visible and vital signs of the perpetual work of the church and society viewed in this light they become sources of growth and gifts to be pressed into service the trouble with jesus was and is that he stands in the midst of conflict and allows the conflict actually to live in him even though it tears him apart in order that new life might be born the trouble with jesus was and is that he invites us to follow where he has led newly revised and expanded this book is not a how to manual for problem solving but a hopeful and creative reflection on the positive aspects of conflict in our relationships and institutions as demonstrated throughout scripture in the life and ministry of jesus the early church the church today and within ourselves for those willing to embrace conflict and the work that it requires the result is a celebration of the community that god has given us conflict is frightening it threatens our sense of control and upsets our notions of order it touches our vulnerability and reveals uncomfortable realities therefore we tend to deny conflict or we try to manage it tame it in fantasies of ultimate control we banish conflict altogether but the ways of god in the real and quite tangible world in which i live are obviously not the same as my ways in this world i am rarely in agreement with others and god obviously tolerates much more untidiness than i find comfortable this conflict which is with me every hour and becomes quite apparent hundreds of times a day arouses fear within me i want to be in control and yet i cannot be in control from conflict and a christian life this edition features a study guide
