lars von trier is the most controversial figure of contemporary european cinema this volume is the first book to analyse in depth the changes he has brought to modern film since founding the back to basics dogme philosophy of filmmaking in 1995 von trier s name has become a by word for taboo breaking cinema as a director he has courted media controversy through films such as the idiots 1998 with its unsimulated sex and non conformist politics and through his complex relationships with actresses such as bj rk and nicole kidman from whom he coaxed career best performances in dancer in the dark 2000 and dogville 2003 respectively analysing these films as well as recent works such as the five obstructions 2004 from a psychoanalytic perspective it forges a new understanding of the founder of dogme 95 as a great democratiser of cinema in the digital age presenting von trier as one of the most daring cinematic exponents of postmodern politics and satire lars von trier s intense disturbing and sometimes funny films have led many to condemn him as misogynist or misanthropic the same films inspire this collection s reflections on how our fears and desires regarding gender power race finitude family and fate often thwart and sometimes feed our best democratic aspirations the essays in this volume attend to von trier s role as provocateur as well as to his films techniques topics and storytelling where others accuse von trier of being clichéd the editors argue that he intensifies the clichés of our times in ways that direct our political energies towards apprehending and repairing a shattered world the book is certainly for von trier lovers and haters but at the same time political critical and feminist theorists entirely unfamiliar with von trier s films will find this volume s essays of interest most of the contributors tarry with von trier to develop new readings of major thinkers and writers including agamben bataille beauvoir benjamin deleuze euripides freud kierkegaard rancière nietzsche winnicott and many more von trier is both central and irrelevant to much of this work writing from the fields of classics literature gender studies philosophy film and political theory the authors stage an interdisciplinary intervention in film studies dogma 95 the avant garde filmmaking movement founded by the danish director lars von trier and three of his fellow directors was launched in 1995 at an elite cinema conference in paris when von trier was called upon to speak about the future of film but instead showered the audience with pamphlets announcing the new movement and its manifesto a refreshingly original critical commentary on the director and his practice playing the waves is a paramount addition to one of new media s most provocative genres games and gaming playing the waves cleverly puns on the title of one of von trier s most famous features and argues that dogma 95 like much of the director s low budget realist productions is a game that takes cinema beyond the traditional confines of film aesthetics and dramatic rules simons articulates the ways in which von trier redefines the practice of filmmaking as a rule bound activity and stipulates the forms and structures of games von trier brings to bear on his films as well as the sobering lessons he draws from economic and evolutionary game theory much like the director s films this fascinating volume takes the traditional point of view of film theory and film aesthetics to the next level and demonstrates we have much to learn from the perspective of game studies and game theory
