everybody loves a good story no matter what the age that is one reason jesus liked to use stories to illustrate the points he was trying to make in flowers in the wind fr bob provides 8 minute story based homilies for each sunday of the year in this volume he focuses on cycle a a cycle focusing mostly on the gospel of matthew each homily takes one or more of the scripture passages of the day and tells a story illustrating the point or moral of the scripture then fr bob answers the most important question every homilist must answer this brilliant collection of homilies draws on the sunday and feast day readings to demonstrate the relevance of biblical interpretation to the life of a community and its members the purpose of each homily is to address listeners who have gathered for worship by helping them to recognize that god is living present and active in the world and also by helping them respond to god s presence by giving praise and thanks and by living a life that accords with the teachings of jesus taken together they constitute a valuable resource for the homilist in the creation of future sermons of equal relevance to the time and circumstances under which they are delivered this second volume comes out of the same vision as its companion volume of homilies for the a cycle at the heart of the b cycle of readings is the gospel of mark which is widely believed to be the oldest of the four gospels and the authors present these homilies as material for reflection by both preachers and listeners everybody loves a good story no matter what the age that is one reason jesus liked to use stories to illustrate the points he was trying to make in flowers in the wind 11 fr bob provides 8 minute story based homilies for each sunday of the year in this volume he focuses on cycle b a cycle focusing mostly on the gospel of mark each homily takes one or more of the scripture passages of the day and tells a story illustrating the point or moral of the scripture then fr bob answers the most important question every homilist must answer so what what does this have to do with me today some stories are old and some are modern they feature saints and sinners the lost and the found they are funny sad intriguing or inspirational in all instances though they make us think about our own life journeys and how we are following the path of jesus christ

flowers in the wind is a series of story based homilies particularly useful for preachers in liturgical churches but also for other mainstream christian denominations each volume comprises an entire liturgical year flowers in the wind 1 is for liturgical cycle b people today are starving for spiritual nourishment they search for god in the most unusual places in money material goods power and sex to mention but a few their search requires an interior journey into their own hearts where god alone will speak to them unfortunately few have any real experience of this gift from god and as a result live partial lives this collection of homilies given by the author in his parish church seeks to show the reader that god is already in their world and they need to look again at the world they live in and recognize his presence english translation made from the surviving latin translation of rufinus of aquileia bibliography p vii x includes indexes

i have through this compiled work power from the word sunday homilies for cycle b tried to make alive and active gods word to us through the liturgical readings for sundays and feast days of the occurring year the arrangement and methodology flow from those of cycle a advent christmas lent easter ordinary time feast days through the homilies i gave more consideration to what goes around our todays human situations than how it happened when jesus was walking alongside the streets of judea and galilee and working amongst people with different cultural settings nevertheless his teachings and approaches are the indispensable yardstick and this is what any homilist has to bear in mind even when this book is considered worthwhile making reference to in preparing homilies for the people of god nonetheless reading through the homilies of this presentation for personal reflection and growth in spirituality outside the sunday liturgy is entirely a different thing it could be a stitch on time hopes to break open the word of god in a different way enabling preachers and priests to bring the gospel into conversation with the lives of ordinary people through the use of stories it is the intention of this book to feed the souls of many who never get to the table of the lord on sundays there is in our world incessant silent echoes of deception spread storms of indifference hidden slave masters that are hindrances to the hearts and minds of those on the roadway to salvation the only way out of this humankinds disorientation the one remaining consolation to the troubled souls of men and women and the return of peace to the thirsting world will be the light that comes from the word of god made flesh in christ it is thus a great gift a priest homilist and preacher offers the people as they assemble to commune with their god in the eucharistic liturgy the author in this diligently written book light in the dark sunday homilies for cycle a for anyagwa used stories live experiences his pastoral encounters and parallel biblical pericopes to enrich the homilies due to the books synthetic qualities diversified contents and contexts as well as the authors balanced theological and hermeneutical approach i strongly recommend this book for both clergy and lay faithful to priests deacons religious catechists and pastoral assistants it would serve as a veritable resource for adapting a sunday and feast day homilies to the rest it would among others pre dispose one to benefit enormously from a particular sundays or feast days readings before and after theyre read and reflected upon by the homilist rev izunna okonkwo ph d std archdiocese of new york
