in covenant theology author jeong koo jeon makes a much needed contribution to 21st century biblical and systematic theology he explores the debate between john murray and meredith g kline placing their ideas in the larger context of biblical studies that have had a direct influence on reformed theology and evangelicalism although the theologies of murray and kline contain significant differences they both maintain a distinction between a covenant of creation and a covenant of grace in addition they both advocate a fundamental antithesis between law and gospel giving a priority to law over gospel in the temporal and logical order of divine works jeon sees these distinctions as hermeneutic tools that are essential for better understanding of biblical revelation as well as faith grace and atonement
