a new translation from the french by marion wiesel night is elie wiesel's masterpiece a candid horrific and deeply poignant autobiographical account of his survival as a teenager in the nazi death camps this new translation by marion wiesel elie's wife and frequent translator presents this seminal memoir in the language and spirit truest to the author's original intent and in a substantive new preface elie reflects on the enduring importance of night and his lifelong passionate dedication to ensuring that the world never forgets man's capacity for inhumanity to man night offers much more than a litany of the daily terrors everyday perversions and rampant sadism at auschwitz and buchenwald it also eloquently addresses many of the philosophical as well as personal questions implicit in any serious consideration of what the holocaust was what it meant and what its legacy is and will be discusses the characters plot and writing of night by elie wiesel includes critical essays on the novel and a brief biography of the author

i died at auschwitz french writer charlotte delbo asserts and nobody knows it möbian nights reading literature and darkness develops a new understanding of literary reading that in the wake of disasters like the holocaust death remains a premise of our experience rather than a future challenging customary aesthetic assumptions that we write in order not to die sandor goodhart suggests with kafka we write to die drawing upon analyses developed by girard foucault blanchot and levinas along with examples from homer to beckett möbian nights proposes that all literature works autobiographically which is to say in the wake of disaster with the credo i died therefore i am and for which the language of topology for example the möbius strip offers a vocabulary for naming the deep structure of such literary critical and scriptural sacrificial and anti sacrificial dynamics featuring a selection from over 80 key texts this anthology aims to help the reader to understand the common origins of religious expression and of literature the texts included cover classical literature the bible english and european classics and contemporary works a woman chronicles the death of her infant son and her subsequent painful struggle to overcome the tragedy which led to reconciliation and healing by the author of safe passage original the failures of ethics concentrates on the multiple shortfalls and shortcomings of thought decision and action that tempt and incite us human beings to inflict incalculable harm absent the overriding of moral sensibilities if not the collapse or collaboration of ethical traditions the holocaust genocide and other mass atrocities could not have happened our senses of moral and religious authority have been fragmented and weakened by the accumulated ruins of history and the depersonalized advances of civilization that have taken us from a bloody twentieth century into an immensely problematic twenty first salvaging the fragmented condition of ethics this book shows how respect and honor for those who save lives and resist atrocity deepened attention to the dead and to death itself and appeals for human rights and renewed spiritual sensitivity confirm that ethics contains and remains an irreplaceable safeguard against its own failures
