critics on umar kayam a prominent indonesian writer and his works since the downfall of soeharto in 1998 many autobiographical writings have appeared in indonesia from the pens of those who were marginalized by his so called new order regime this book examines representative autobiographies of several such individuals two ex political prisoners who describe themselves as muslim communists two writers of the left one a woman in a senior position in the left wing women s organization gerwani and one a well known male novelist who spent years in exile in china and russia two muslim opponents of soeharto one an intellectual and the other a political campaigner and finally two collections of short autobiographies by the younger generation one a group involved in social welfare action the other a group of dedicated young muslims the scrutiny of the texts is in all cases preceded by a brief account of the historical and cultural context of the writing of the autobiographies in the analysis of the works themselves the emphasis is on trying to represent the implicit tone of the narrative as much as its overt contents both general and specialist readers are consequently invited to reflect on the memories and experiences of significant participant observers as a mode of understandig a recent period in indonesian
