the ethnic chinese minority in indonesia is a heterogeneous group many have been acculturated and have generated an indonesian chinese culture that is unique and yet deeply rooted in indonesian society in education literature and the press the ethnic chinese have been largely assimilated into local society in religion assimilation has taken on a different form chinese minority religions are highly indonesianized while retaining some chinese characteristics ironically the success of the ethnic chinese in the economic field can be attributed not to their acculturation but to their migrant culture and ethos as well as the chinese networks in southeast asia and beyond the ten papers in this book some previously published all substantially revised and updated to include recent developments adopt a thematic and historical approach in examining the developing of ethnic chinese culture and society in indonesia
