considered an expert about the book of enoch dr randy delp has put together an analysis of this ancient book to explain why jesus and the new testament writers were not only influenced by the book of enoch they quoted its contents cited its texts and labeled it scripture the teachings of enoch have influenced every major monotheistic religion including islam judaism christianity and zoroastrianism and vestiges can be found in hinduism and other ancient religions the footprints of his teachings are seen throughout every generation and the finality of his message has yet to be fulfilled enochs influence in astronomy history religion education and para psychology has forged how society thinks today it is significant to note that the prophet named enoch who was born seven generations after adam and eve may be the only person in history who has had a positive effect on every major and minor religion while nothing negative is ever spoken about him writing a 588 page book of your own creation would be a hard task to complete in 85 days especially one as complex consistent original historical accurate and profound as the book of mormon when you read could you write a book comparable to the book of mormon your mind will be opened to the many challenges that joseph smith would have faced in writing this intricate book if he was indeed the author it is my hope that you will be left with no other conclusion than the book of mormon was translated by divine intervention that no man could have invented such a book under those conditions and that joseph smith truly was chosen by god to translate this ancient book of scripture the book takes as its theme the relationship between literature and the contemporary means of production and distribution collectively termed the media in particular film and television the intention of the book is to explore and evaluate the mutual opportunities and restrictions in this relationship in the grammar of our culture there seems to be an accepted opinion that print is superior in terms of cultural production to film radio or television that to read a book is somehow a higher cultural activity than seeing a play on television or seeing a film by the same token a novel is a superior work of art to film or television the longer perspective reveals that traditionally there always is a greater respect paid to the previous mode of literary production poetry was superior to drama poetic drama was superior to the novel and film attained cult and classic status initially over television
