twenty first century technology is an ever expanding powerful force in virtually every aspect of human life and every corner of the globe so much of modern technology has resulted in positive improvements in communication work health and other domains technology s promises and possibilities for the future are often glowing but it is one thing for technology to function as a tool serving human purpose and flourishing and quite another for it to be granted the position of unquestioned master all technologies deserve to be questioned what are their costs trade offs and potential or real negative impact and how do we create limits and controls for technological invasion when these would be wise and necessary questioning technology with jacques ellul addresses these questions in both the big picture and in their relevance to specific arenas such as art politics work and religion with voices from not just the academy but also the workplace and society in this study arguments are put forward for the thesis that biblical exegesis of the old testament prophetic literature is not a simple matter of interpreting texts but is also a process in which logical models or possible worlds are constructed to accommodate the validity of particular interpretations the lack of a model theoretical orientation to old testament methodological approaches has led to a situation in which the criticism of particular theories rarely addresses the real points of disagreement between scholars one theory is simply set against another even though the theories would be more effectively evaluated by discussing the validity and relevance of the different models in which they are framed there are various plausible and relevant models available for the interpretation of old testament texts in order to compare these different models a metalogical system charles sanders peirce s semiotics has been used throughout this study many important methodological issues are discussed in this study a
