asian cinema is an area of increasing interest in anglo us film studies while asian films are now widely distributed and popular with western audiences the fascination with asian cinema must be examined in the context of a complex and often problematic relationship between western scholars students viewers and asian films this book therefore examines a number of detailed case studies such as the films of ozu bruce lee hong kong and turkish cinema hindi melodramas godzilla films taiwanese directors and fifth generation chinese cinema and uses them in order to investigate the limitations of anglo us theoretical models and critical paradigms by engaging the readers with familiar areas of critical discourse such as postcolonial criticism national cinema genre authorship and stardom the book aims to introduce within such contexts the unfamiliar case studies which will be explored in depth and detail the advantage of such an approach is that it works with the dynamics of familiarity unfamiliarity and resists the temptation to construct asian cinemas as a gallery of exotic objects that might be particularly fascinating but remain deeply distant and foreign features a comprehensive study of asian cinemas including hong kong japan china india turkey and taiwan an accessible guide for the study and research of asian cinema which addresses undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers each section contains a contextualising introduction includes key texts by ackbar abbas rey chow david desser dimitris eleftheriotis nezih erdo
