this volume contains a collection of twenty one essays of john s Kloppenborg with four foci conceptual and methodological issues in the synoptic problem the sayings gospel q the gospel of mark and the parables of Jesus Kloppenborg a major contributor to the synoptic problem is especially interested in how one constructs synoptic hypotheses always aware of the many gaps in our knowledge the presence of competing hypotheses and the theological and historical entailments in any given hypothesis common to the essays in the remaining three sections is the insistence that the literature thought and practices of the early Jesus movement must be treated with a deep awareness of their social literary and intellectual contexts the context of the early Jesus movement is illumined not simply by resort to the literary and historical sources produced by Greek and Roman elites but more importantly by data gathered from documentary sources available in non literary papyri
