Over a short ten-year time span, Hodinkee has positioned itself as the preeminent and most distinguished destination for modern and vintage wristwatch enthusiasts. Exiting a career in finance, Ben Clymer decided to fuse his horological and writing passions in order to start a blog discussing everything from new products to vintage wristwatch auctions, titling his endeavor after the Czech word hodinky, which means little watch. Clymer sought to create a platform that was casual and accessible to all levels of enthusiasts. Within a few years, the New York Times dubbed him the high priest of horology.

The Patek Philippe Nautilus, which is a very famous watch, was designed by Gerard Genta in just 5 minutes. Graff diamonds made the most expensive watch in the world, which costs 55 million. The Rolex Submariner broke the record for being the first wristwatch that was waterproof at a depth of 100 metres. The Jaeger-LeCoultre Reverso was the result of a challenge by a polo player after he kept breaking his watch while playing. Cartier Santos was released in the year 1904 and has remained a highly sought-after watch even after a century. In this book, we look at 51 of the most iconic watches that have changed the landscape of timekeeping in terms of innovation and design. These watches have not just impacted our lives but have also played a major role in the world's history as it was responsible for many decisions, whether it was during wars or in times when accurate timekeeping was needed.
