recipient of the hubert herring memorial award from the pacific coast council on latin american studies for the best unpublished manuscript of 1973 prose fiction of the cuban revolution is an in depth study of works by cubans cuban exiles and other latin american writers combining historical and critical approaches seymour menton classifies and analyzes over two hundred novels and volumes of short stories revealing the extent to which cuban literature reflects the reality of the revolution menton establishes four periods 1959 1960 1961 1965 1966 1970 and 1971 1973 that reflect the changing policies of the revolutionary government toward the arts using these periods as a chronological guideline he defines four distinct literary generations records the facts about their works establishes coordinates and formulates a system of literary and historical classification he then makes an aesthetic analysis of the best of cuban fiction emphasizing the novels of major writers including alejo carpentier s el siglo de las luces and josé lezama lima s paradiso he also discusses the works of a large number of lesser known writers which must be considered in arriving at an accurate historical tableau menton s exploration of the short story combines a thematic and stylistic analysis of nineteen anthologies with a close study of six authors guillermo cabrera infante calvert casey humberto arenal antonio benítez jesús díaz rodríguez and norberto fuentes several chapters are devoted to the increasing number of novels and short stories written by cuban exiles as well as to the eighteen novels and one short story written about the revolution by non cubans such as julio cortázar carlos martínez moreno luisa josefina hernández and pedro juan soto in studying literary works to reveal the intrinsic consciousness of a historical period menton presents not only his own views but also those of cuban literary critics in addition he clarifies the various changes in the official attitude toward literature and the arts in cuba using the revolutionary processes of several other countries as comparative examples
