the return of an old ally brings both joy and implications not just for the turtles but for the future of humanity on planet earth it's not only old friends who are stopping by to visit the ninja turtles the foot clan is dropping in as well with a shocking revelation time moves forward and faster than ever before in this issue and the danger that comes along with it will be fast and ferocious as well

national hero javanese mystic pious muslim and leader of the holy war against the dutch between 1825 and 1830 the yogyakarta prince dipanagara 1785 1855 otherwise known as diponegoro is pre eminent in the pantheon of modern indonesian historical figures yet despite instant name recognition in indonesia there has never been a full biography of the prince's life and times based on dutch and javanese sources the power of prophecy is a major study which sets dipanagara's life history against the context of the turbulent events of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century when the full force of european imperialism hit indonesia like an asian tsunami destroying forever java's old order and propelling the twin forces of islam and javanese national identity into a fatal confrontation with the dutch this confrontation known as the java war in which dipanagara was defeated and exiled marked the beginning of the modern colonial period in indonesia which lasted until the japanese occupation of 1942 1945 the book presents a detailed analysis of dipanagara's pre war visions and aspirations as a javanese ratu adil just king based on extensive reading of his autobiography the babad dipanagara as well as a number of other javanese sources dutch and british records in particularly the residency archives of yogyakarta and surakarta currently kept in the indonesian national archives provide the backbone of this scholarly work the book will be read with profit by all those interested in the rise of western colonial rule in indonesia the fate of indigenous cultures in an age of imperialism and the role of javanese islam in modern indonesian history this book assesses the everyday use of petitions in administrative and judicial settings and contrasts these with more assertive forms of political petitioning addressed to assemblies or rulers a petition used to be a humble means of asking a favour but in the early modern period petitioning became more assertive and participative this book shows how this contrasted to ordinary petitioning often to the consternation of authorities by evaluating petitioning practices in scotland england and denmark the book traces the boundaries between ordinary and adversarial petitioning and shows how non elites could become involved in politics through petitioning also observed are the responses of authorities to participative petitions including the suppression or forgetting of unwelcome petitions and consequent struggles to establish petitioning as a right rather than a privilege together the chapters in this book indicate the significance of collective petitioning in articulating early modern public opinion and shaping contemporary ideas about opinion at large the chapters in this book were originally published in the journal parliaments estates representation
