in this new analysis of the gospel of john kari syreeni argues that the gospel is a heavily reworked edition of an earlier johannine work and that the original did not include jesus passion syreeni theorizes that the original gospel ended at chapter 12 with the notion of jesus disappearance from the world and that the passion narrative was incorporated by a later editor freely using the existing gospels of mark and matthew syreeni suggests that the letters of john written after the predecessor gospels but before the final edition reveal a schism in the johannine community that was caused by the majority faction's acceptance of jesus death and resurrection as it was then recorded in the new gospel by exploring the gospel's different means of legitimizing the passion story such as the creation of the beloved disciple to witness jesus passion and the foreshadowing of the resurrection of jesus in the miracle of lazarus syreeni provides a bold and provocative case for a new understanding of john

this book is a commentary on the new testament book of acts that is primarily about the apostle paul and his mission to the aegean all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonell.com or bible ag freely you have received freely give mt 10 8 in 1980 garry friesen wrote decision making and the will of god a book that debunked the traditional view that god leads by inward impressions into his perfect specific will but bible teachers continue teach prayer is a two way conversation churches continue to question pastoral candidates about their call to the ministry and christians continue to try to discern god s inner voice to make decisions christians in the book of acts made their decisions by the word and wisdom not by listening for inward impressions almost all paul s decisions in acts can be explained by 17 logical principles he followed paul was jesus surrogate to complete jesus mission to bring the gospel to the gentiles of the aegean sea and to the jews of the diaspora isaiah 49 1 6 listen o islands to me and hearken you jewish people from far the lord has called me from the womb he said it is a light thing that you would be my servant to restore the preserved of israel i will also give you for a light to the gentiles so that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth the first part of the book of acts asks can even gentiles be saved but the last part focuses on luke s real message the congregation should continue to look equally jewish and gentile even though gentiles become far more numerous in the congregation this is god s highest purpose gathering two into the one body of messiah according to ephesians all paul s epistles were written by the end of acts 28 there s no need for a speculated release and second roman imprisonment this book also provides an accounting of the movements of paul s coworkers and a history of charismaticism christian mysticism and the false doctrine of let go and let god focus on management theory and practice this book is about how to know god s will through the scriptures and wisdom instead of by supposedly hearing god s voice all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell com freely you have received freely give mt 10 8 this booklet is included in and comprises several sections in my book paul s decision making in acts anti charismatic pro jewish commentary on acts in 1980 garry friesen wrote decision making and the will of god a book that debunked the traditional view that god leads by inward impressions into his perfect specific will but bible teachers continue teach prayer is a two way conversation churches continue to question pastoral candidates about their call to the ministry and christians continue to try to discern god s inner voice to make decisions maybe it would help if we had more scholarly journal articles on the topic grudem i categorized the articles published in three refereed evangelical journals for the last five years before 2000 westminster theological journal trinity journal and the journal of the evangelical theological society not counting book reviews there were 257 scholarly articles on all topics but regarding god s guidance in our daily lives zero articles yet some understanding of god s guidance affects every christian every day of his or her life either garry friesen is right on that topic or he s wrong we should expect to see many more scholars contributing articles and books supporting and developing their viewpoints christians in the book of acts made their decisions by the word and wisdom not by listening for inward impressions i would love to read an exposition of the book of acts that showed paul the other apostles and their co workers making most of their decisions by listening for inward impressions but it would require reading that doctrine into the text rather than expositing it out of the text friesen in order to arrive at the conclusion of the traditional approach to decision making it is necessary to water down the biblical examples and spice up the biblical teaching examples like in acts are watered down to be less miraculous than they really are so we can think we re doing them too biblical teaching like in the epistles must be spiced up to be more specific than it really is for example a promise to israel to guide you continually is 58 11 doesn t actually say anything about christians being guided by inward impressions paul made most of his decisions by the word and wisdom not by inward impressions and only rarely by direct revelation even though he was the apostle on the cutting edge of jesus mission to bring the gospel to the gentiles most of paul s decisions in acts can be explained 17 principles he followed
