a race based oppositional paradigm has informed chicano studies since its emergence in this work sandra k soto replaces that paradigm with a less didactic more flexible framework geared for a queer analysis of the discursive relationship between racialization and sexuality through rereadings of a diverse range of widely discussed writers from américo paredes to cherríe moraga soto demonstrates that representations of racialization actually depend on the sexual and that a racialized sexuality is a heretofore unrecognized organizing principle of chican literature even in the most unlikely texts soto gives us a broader and deeper engagement with chican representations of racialization desire and both inter and intracultural social relations while several scholars have begun to take sexuality seriously by invoking the rich terrain of contemporary chicana feminist literature for its portrayal of culturally specific and historically laden gender and sexual frameworks as well as for its imaginative transgressions against them this is the first study to theorize racialized sexuality as pervasive to and enabling of the canon of chican literature exemplifying the broad usefulness of queer theory by extending its critical tools and anti heteronormative insights to racialization soto stages a crucial intervention amid a certain loss of optimism that circulates both as a fear that queer theory was a fad whose time has passed and that queer theory is incapable of offering an incisive politically grounded analysis in and of the current historical moment for more than thirty years ana castillo has been mesmerizing and inspiring readers from all over the world with her passionate and fiery poetry and prose now the original xicanista is back to her first literary love poetry and to interrogating the social and political upheaval the world has seen over the last decade angry and sad playful and wise castillo delves into the bitter side of our world the environmental crisis covid 19 ongoing systemic racism and violence children in detention camps and the trump presidency and emerges stronger from exploring these troubling affairs of today drawings by castillo created over the past five years are featured throughout the collection and further showcase her connection to her work as both a writer and a visual artist my book of the dead is a remarkable collection that features a poet at the height of her craft an anchor books original cherished for her passionate fiction and exuberant essays the author hailed by julia alvarez as una storyteller de primera and by barbara kingsolver in the los angeles times as impossible to resist returns to her first love poetry to reveal an unwavering commitment to social justice and a fervent embrace of the sensual world with the poems in i ask the impossible castillo celebrates the strength that is a woman buried deep in her heart whether memorializing real life heroines who have risked their lives for humanity spinning a lighthearted tale for her young son or penning odes to mortals gods goddesses castillo s poems are eloquent and rich with insight she shares over twelve years of poetic inspiration from her days as a writer who once wrote poems in a basement with no heat through the tenderness of motherhood and bitterness of loss to the strength of love itself which can make the impossible a simple act radiant with keen perception wit and urgency sometimes erotic often funny this inspiring collection sounds the unmistakable voice of a woman on fire and more worthy than stone for more than forty years chicana author ana castillo has produced novels poems and critical essays that forge connections between generations challenge borders around race gender and sexuality and critically engage transnational issues of space identity and belonging her contributions to latinx cultural production and to chicana feminist thought have transcended and contributed to feminist praxis ethnic literature and border studies throughout the americas transnational chicanx perspectives on ana castillo is the first edited collection that focuses on castillo s oeuvre which directly confronts what happens in response to cultural displacement mixing and border crossing divided into five sections this collection thinks about castillo s poetics language and form as well as thematic issues such as borders immigration gender sexuality and transnational feminism from her first political poetry otro canto published in 1977 to her mainstream novels such as the mixquiahuala letters so far from god and the guardians this collection aims to unravel how castillo's writing impacts people of color around the globe and works in solidarity with other third world feminisms
