democratic ways from this perspective the politics of engagement is not simply a matter of acquiescence or resistance but is informed by a commitment to generate alternatives teachers parents and students making things happen rather than having things done to them also signalled is an intent to work collectively exploring and acting on common interests and across uncommon ground second the book also celebrates teachers engaging in these reconstructive efforts in attractive and meaningful ways the attraction is decisions about schooling made by those they affect as well as decisions that are meaningful because they engage the interests of all
