when the nazis seized power in germany in 1933 they promised to create a new harmonious society under the leadership of the führer adolf hitler the concept of volksgemeinschaft the people's community enshrined the nazis vision of society a society based on racist social darwinist anti democratic and nationalist thought the regime used volksgemeinschaft to define who belonged to the national socialist community and who did not being accorded the status of belonging granted citizenship rights access to the benefits of the welfare state and opportunities for advancement while these who were denied the privilege of belonging lost their right to live they were shamed excluded imprisoned murdered volksgemeinschaft was the nazis project of social engineering realized by state action by administrative procedure by party practice by propaganda and by individual initiative everyone deemed worthy of belonging was called to participate in its realization indeed this collective notion was directed at the individual and unleashed an enormous dynamism which gave social change a particular direction the volksgemeinschaft concept was not strictly defined which meant that it was rather marked by a plurality of meaning and emphasis which resulted in a range of readings in the third reich drawing in people from many social and political backgrounds visions of community in nazi germany scrutinizes volksgemeinschaft as the nazis central vision of community the contributors engage with individual appropriations examine projects of social engineering analyze the social dynamism unleashed and show how deeply private lives were affected by this murderous vision of society on the murderous road to racial purity hitler encountered unexpected detours largely due to his own crazed views and inconsistent policies regarding jewish identity after centuries of jewish assimilation and intermarriage in german society he discovered that eliminating jews from the rest of the population was more difficult than he d anticipated as bryan rigg shows in this provocative new study nowhere was that heinous process more fraught with contradiction and confusion than in the german military contrary to conventional views rigg reveals that a startlingly large number of german military men were classified by the nazis as jews or partial jews mischlinge in the wake of racial laws first enacted in the mid 1930s rigg demonstrates that the actual number was much higher than previously thought perhaps as many as 150 000 men including decorated veterans and high ranking officers even generals and admirals as rigg fully documents for the first time a great many of these men did not even consider themselves jewish and had embraced the military as a way of life and as devoted patriots eager to serve a revived german nation in turn they had been embraced by the wehrmacht which prior to hitler had given little thought to the race of these men but which was now forced to look deeply into the ancestry of its soldiers the process of investigation and removal however was marred by a highly inconsistent application of nazi law numerous exemptions were made in order to allow a soldier to stay within the ranks or to spare a soldier s parent spouse or other relative from incarceration or far worse hitler s own signature can be found on many of these exemption orders but as the war dragged on nazi politics came to trump military logic even in the face of the wehrmacht s growing manpower needs closing legal loopholes and making it virtually impossible for these soldiers to escape the fate of millions of other victims of the third reich based on a deep and wide ranging research in archival and secondary sources as well as extensive interviews with more than four hundred mischlinge and their relatives rigg s study breaks truly new ground in a crowded field and shows from yet another angle the extremely flawed dishonest demeaning and tragic essence of hitler s rule describes the rise of the nazi party and the history of the third reich in short chapters illustrated with diagrams graphs tables maps and photographs relates to jews in the sections nazi racialism 76 79 the ss 152 157 policies of occupation 158 163 the holocaust 182 187
