the book is the volume of history of thoughts in the qing dynasty among a series of books of deep into china histories the earliest known written records of the history of china date from as early as 1250 bc from the shang dynasty c 1600 1046 bc and the bamboo annals 296 bc describe a xia dynasty c 2070 1600 bc before the shang but no writing is known from the period the shang ruled in the yellow river valley which is commonly held to be the cradle of chinese civilization however neolithic civilizations originated at various cultural centers along both the yellow river and yangtze river these yellow river and yangtze civilizations arose millennia before the shang with thousands of years of continuous history china is one of the world s oldest civilizations and is regarded as one of the cradles of civilization the zhou dynasty 1046 256 bc supplanted the shang and introduced the concept of the mandate of heaven to justify their rule the central zhou government began to weaken due to external and internal pressures in the 8th century bc and the country eventually splintered into smaller states during the spring and autumn period these states became independent and warred with one another in the following warring states period much of traditional chinese culture literature and philosophy first developed during those troubled times in 221 bc qin shi huang conquered the various warring states and created for himself the title of huangdi or emperor of the qin marking the beginning of imperial china however the oppressive government fell soon after his death and was supplanted by the longer lived han dynasty 206 bc 220 ad successive dynasties developed bureaucratic systems that enabled the emperor to control vast territories directly in the 21 centuries from 206 bc until ad 1912 routine administrative tasks were handled by a special elite of scholar officials young men well versed in calligraphy history literature and philosophy were carefully selected through difficult government examinations china s last dynasty was the qing 1644 1912 which was replaced by the republic of china in 1912 and in the mainland by the people's republic of china in 1949 chinese history has alternated between periods of political unity and peace and periods of war and failed statehood the most recent being the chinese civil war 1927 1949 china was occasionally dominated by steppe peoples most of whom were eventually assimilated into the han chinese culture and population between eras of multiple kingdoms and warlordism chinese dynasties have ruled parts or all of china in some eras control stretched as far as xinjiang and tibet as at present traditional culture and influences from other parts of asia and the western world carried by waves of immigration cultural assimilation expansion and foreign contact form the basis of the modern culture of china to begin with i had read about milarepa in tibet's great yogi milarepa by w y evans wentz in the period between 2004 to 2008 at that time i had just started reading and searching for what the enlightened masters had shared at some point in life one starts searching for the truths of life and this is very common however from the 2014 onwards as i have lived a life of a reclusive buddhist monk while practicing anapana and vipassana meditations some experiences and realisations have happened in awareness picking up from those realisations and insights over a period of 11 years now i chose to write about the teaching of jetsun milarepa may be it is not my will but grace of the absolute truth and jetsun milarepa himself that has guided me to write this book in this work what comes to my limited awareness and grasp i share about the teachings jetsun milarepa here i share what limited insights i have acquired through meditations and relate it with some of my own negligible research work and also where necessary i quote the teachings of the shakya muni buddha which are available in pali further what i do here is try to present the essence from the instances of life of milarepa and where necessary excerpts from the two books are quoted to fill in the context my limited grasp as well as where i think it is necessary to stress what milarepa is sharing is in small capital letters font further i have marked the points in the teachings of marpa and milarepa with bold font which might be of value hasten slowly and ye shall soon arrive jetsun milarepa the book provides a complete translation of a groundbreaking tibetan treatise on contemplation the samten migdron by nubchen sangye yeshe 10th century this is one of the principal sources for our understanding of the various currents of meditation transmitted to tibet during the early spread of buddhism to that country it offers a detailed window into the ways in which one of the most learned masters of the early tibetan buddhist tradition made sense of the different forms of meditation practiced in his day providing the first comprehensive selection in english of nasafi s treatises this work offers the western student of islam a much needed guide to the speculative and practical dimensions of sufism this book argues that shaw was a masterful reader of ibsen s plays both as texts and as the cornerstone of the modern theatre dismantling the notion that shaw distorted ibsen to promote his own view of the world and establishing shaw s initial interest in ibsen as the poet of peer gynt it chronicles shaw s important role in the london ibsen campaign and exposes the falsity of the tradition that shaw branded ibsen as a socialist further this study shows that shaw s famous but maligned the quintessence of ibsenism reflects ibsen s own anti idealist notion of his work and argues that shaw s readings of ibsen s plays are pioneering analyses that anticipate later criticism it offers new readings of shaw s ibsenist plays as well as a comprehensive account of ibsen s importance for shaw s dramatic criticism from his early journalism to our theatres of the nineties both as a weapon against the inanities of the victorian stage and as the standard bearer for modernism a brilliant annotated translation of dölpopa sherab gyaltsen s mountain dharma that opens a masterpiece of the jonang tradition to western readers and presents dölpopa s provocative ideas about a true eternal and established reality that still impact buddhism today the controversial master dolpopa sherab gyaltsen shook buddhist tibet when he taught that an eternal enlightened essence or buddha nature exists in full form in all living beings the ideas discussed in mountain dharma are still as provocative now as when dolpopa first taught them impacting buddhism to this day dolpopa identified the ultimate with the buddha nature or sugata essence which he held to be eternal and not empty of self nature the buddha nature is perfect with all its characteristics inherently present in all living beings it is only the impermanent and temporary afflictions veiling the buddha nature that are empty of self nature and must be removed through the practice of the path to allow it to manifest dolpopa establishes the validity of his theories with an ocean of quotations selected from indian buddhist scriptures and treatises of indisputable authority showing us that the ultimate is a true eternal and established reality empty merely of other relative phenomena
