the changing face of economics gives the reader a sense of the modern economics profession and how it is changing the volume does so with a set of nine interviews with cutting edge economists followed by interviews with two nobel prize winners paul samuelson and kenneth arrow reflecting on the changes that are occurring what results is a clear picture of today s economics and it is no longer standard neoclassical economics the interviews and commentary together demonstrate that economics is currently undergoing a fundamental shift in method and is moving away from traditional neoclassical economics into a dynamic set of new methods and approaches these new approaches include work in behavioral economics experimental economics evolutionary game theory and ecological approaches complexity and nonlinear dynamics methodological analysis and agent based modeling david e colander is professor of economics middlebury college j barkley rosser jr is professor of economics and kirby l kramer jr professor of business administration james madison university richard p f holt is professor of churchill honors and economics southern oregon university the 2008 financial crisis the rise of trumpism and the other populist movements which have followed in their wake have grown out of the frustrations of those hurt by the economic policies advocated by conventional economists for generations despite this textbooks remain frozen in time continuing to uphold traditional policies as though nothing has happened foundations of real world economics demonstrates how misleading it can be to apply oversimplified models of perfect competition to the real world the math works well on college blackboards but not so well on the main streets of america this volume explores the realities of oligopolies the real impact of the minimum wage the double edged sword of free trade and other ways in which powerful institutions cause distortions in mainstream models bringing together the work of key scholars like kahneman minsky and schumpeter this textbook takes into consideration the inefficiencies that arise when the perfectly competitive model is applied to the real world dominated by multinational oligopolies the third edition has been updated throughout bringing in new material on the financial crises the rise of populism racism inequality climate change and the covid 19 pandemic a must have for students studying the principles of economics as well as micro and macroeconomics this textbook redresses the existing imbalance in economic teaching as john komlos focuses on the paradigm of humanistic economics
