the peasants starved the first hundred years of industrialization delivered stagnant incomes for workers while making a few people rich throughout the world today digital technologies and artificial intelligence increase inequality and undermine democracy it doesn't have to be this way power and progress demonstrates that the path of technology was once and can again be brought under control with their breakthrough economic theory and manifesto for a better society acemoglu and johnson provide the vision to reshape how we innovate so we can create real prosperity for all daron acemoglu and simon johnson were awarded the nobel prize in economic sciences on 14 october 2024

while there is no lack of studies on asian cities the majority focus on financial districts poverty the slum tradition tourism and pollution and use the modern affluent and transforming western city as the reference point this vast asian empirical presence is not complemented by a theoretical presence academic discourses overlook common and basic urban processes particularly the production of space place and identity by ordinary citizens switching the vantage point to asian cities and citizens transforming asian cities draws attention to how asians produce their contemporary urban practices identities and spaces as part of resisting responding to and avoiding larger global and national processes instead of viewing asian cities in opposition to the western city and using it as the norm this book instead opts to provincialize mainstream and traditional knowledge it argues that the vast terrain of ordinary actors and spaces which are currently left out should be reflected in academic debates and policy decisions and the local thinking processes that constitute these spaces need to be acknowledged enabled and critiqued the individual chapters illustrate that global spaces are more trans local traditional environments are more modern and asian spaces are better defined than acknowledged the aim is to develop room for understandings of asian cities from asian standpoints especially acknowledging how asians observe interpret understand and create space in their cities
