mapping a new museum seeks to rethink the museum s role in today s politically conscious world presenting a selection of innovative projects that have taken place in latin america over the last year the book begins to map out possibilities for the future of the global museum the projects featured within the pages of this book were all supported by the santo domingo centre of excellence for latin american research sdcelar at the british museum bm with the aim of making the bm s latin american collections meaningful to communities in the region and others worldwide these projects illustrate how communities manage cultural heritage and taken together they suggest that there is also no all encompassing counter narrative that can be used to decolonise museums reflecting on and experimenting with the ways that research happens within museum collections the interdisciplinary collaborations described within these pages have used collections to tell stories that destabilise societal assumptions whilst also proactively seeking out that which has historically been overlooked the result is the book argues a research environment that challenges intellectual orthodoxy and values critical and alternative forms of knowledge mapping a new museum contains english and spanish versions of every chapter which enables the book to put critical stress on the self referentiality of anglophone literature in the field of museum anthropology the book will be essential reading for students scholars and museum practitioners working around the world thirteen papers by archaeologists from north and south america on the archaeology of coastal ecuador peru and chile the authors have all emphasized comparative approaches to prehispanic societies along the pacific coast they give preference neither to high theory nor to case specific empirical details but rather attempt to answer theoretically important research questions with appropriate methodologies and empirical datasets ones that are amenable to a broad comparative view biodiversity sometimes simply understood as diversity of species is a specific quality of life on our planet the dimensions and importance of which have just lately been fully realized today we know that biological diversity is a global asset of incalculable value to present and future generations kofi annan biodiversity is spread unequally over the world in fact the main share of biological resources worldwide is harboured predominantly by the so called developing countries in the tropics and sub tropics therefore biodiversity a challenge for development research and policy was chosen as the title for an international conference which was held in bonn in 1997 as one of the first major events organized by the then newly established north south centre for development research zef at rheinische friedrich wilhelms universitat bonn germany since the zef founded by the senate of the university of bonn in 1995 has played a central role in turning bonn into a centre for international cooperation and north south dialogue the centre is a product of the bonn berlin agreement of july 1994 which was adopted to offset the effects caused by the parliament and much of the government moving to berlin it fits in well with the double strategy to strengthen bonn s position as an interna tional science arena and as an eminent place for development policy and the national and supranational agencies dealing with this issue this book is about television in latin america its national and regional industries create most television programming there within genres developed over time in the region however part of the programming has always come from the u s europe and elsewhere with cable satellite and now streaming tv that inflow of foreign programming has increased substantially while many in the audience still prefer national or regional programs for their cultural proximity an increasing number among the upper middle and middle classes particularly the young are turning to the new foreign services like netflix amazon and disney for class distinction cosmopolitanism or other motives among the television industries global regional and national actors are creating a variety of programs and channels broadcast pay tv and streaming to segment and appeal to different parts of the audience con toda probabilidad hace ya 5 milenios fuimos visitados por una raza extraterrestre cuyo testimonio se niega a desaparecer y todavía perdura inmerso en cantidad de mitos leyendas y cosmogonías nibiru tan sólo es una de las múltiples denominaciones que en la antigüedad recibió su lugar de origen un planeta que recorre incansablemente las profundidades del sistema solar de un modo muy característico sam propone un recorrido tras las huellas del astro aunque más que huellas constituyen una biografía entera a través del testimonio del pueblo dogón y los vestigios del antiguo egipto y la vieja mesopotamia sin duda un itinerario apasionante que no dejará a nadie indiferente marcando un antes y un después porque en esta obra no hay espacio para cabos sueltos ni se deja nada en el aire
