the bestselling author of christ centered preaching provides a useful and accessible resource that traces the history of christian worship and calls contemporary congregations to gospel faithfulness worship is dialogue it is more than that but it is not less than that the way baptists have worshiped for three and a half centuries demonstrates this consistently in spite of their penchant for freedom and autonomy no one tells baptists how to order their worship services they don t have a common liturgy that they must follow and yet their services look remarkably similar this is largely due to two controlling factors in their worship the bible that they embrace as inspired inerrant authoritative and sufficient and the christ revealing gospel that is contained within its pages when the word of god is followed closely a shape for worship order begins to emerge it is the same gospel shape that is found throughout the bible when the word of god is applied to a worship service in which god and his people are engaged in a worship conversation a consistent contour of gospel elements and content begins to emerge that reveals the glory of the christ we gather to worship he is so glorious that when we behold him we are transformed into the same image from one degree to another this is the power of corporate worship 2 cor 3 this book takes an interdisciplinary approach to a societal challenge that both affects and is affected by the church in multi racial multi cultural and otherwise pluralistic communities in certain contexts around the world there are pertinent examples of the struggles that come with learning to live together in the midst of diversity and plurality such as the post apartheid republic of south africa however these more often than not racial and cultural struggles could be eased by developing worship services that are more relevant and inclusive this in turn should instil a sense of belief and a way of inclusive thinking culminating in more inclusive living the approach developed in this book stems from the aphorism lex orandi lex credendi lex con vivendi or as we pray so we believe so we live together let jesus not the world set the priorities of your heart in this lenten season toward the cross challenges each of us to answer the question that lies at the heart of discipleship at the heart of our priorities is following jesus the most important thing to you is it your priority when you follow jesus how does it change the way you think speak and act jesus told would be followers to count the cost the chapters and daily readings in this book help you do that by developing a disciple s perspective on yourself others and things they encourage you to let go of the past guilt and things that weigh you down and cling tightly to christ in genuine discipleship this seven week study guides you through lent and easter helping you explore qualities and characteristics of christian discipleship that lead you to claim jesus as your highest priority each week includes a group session based on the traditional gospel texts with supporting daily readings for ash wednesday through easter monday group sessions have questions to spark discussion as you strengthen your commitment to making jesus your priority during the lenten season easter and beyond hymns as a potential tool of theological contextualisation have never been fully explored this study looks at this function of hymnody in relation to mexican culture a sample of hymnody used by evangelicals of different traditions was selected to examine its theology and to compare which kind of hymns or songs were more reliable and appropriate to communicate the evangelical faith in the mexican context
