most of the indians whose names we remember were warriors tecumseh black hawk sitting bull crazy horse geronimo men who led their people in a desperate defense of their lands and their way of life but as alvin josephy has written some of the indians greatest patriots died unsung by white men and because their peoples were also obliterated or almost so their names are forgotten kenekuk was one of those unsung patriots leader of the vermilion band kickapoos and potawatomis from the 1820s to 1852 kenekuk is today little known even in the midwest where his people settled his achievements as the political and religious leader of a small band of peaceful indians have been largely overlooked yet his leadership which transcended one of the most difficult periods in native american history that of
