there is a value in seeing how spiritual awakening and being human meet in an ordinary life in relationship with our partners kids families and friends with our busy lives in illness transitions death careers and in every area of our lives this book is a call to awakening and embracing and transforming our humanity it is a radical guide to spiritual awakening in the modern world not written from the monastery or ashram but from someone who has lived in the pain of samsara from someone who after years of seeking and meditation found surrender in the depths of pain while life was falling apart around him craig holliday is both a nondual teacher and a therapist he teaches in a way that instructs us to not run from life but to face life head on through embracing every moment as it is through this absolute embracing we are given the gift of discovering that our beauty our innate divinity is right here within us that our very humanity is the doorway to our freedom craig has spent 20 years intensely seeking meditating and studying with some of the world's greatest nondual teachers beyond his spiritual training he has also bridged the gap between eastern spirituality and western psychotherapy after years of trying to transcend his humanity through meditation and spirituality his search brought him to the study of psychology and the emphasis on working with our humanity instead of simply trying to transcend it through this combined work of psychology and nondual spirituality craig offers a seamless transmission of nondual spirituality which fully acknowledges our humanity and our overwhelming beauty and divinity his work is dedicated to the discovery of our innate divinity in every aspect of our lives he

I am simply a normal ordinary human who has struggled with life who has been pulled in every direction and who failed totally at life and yet this failure lead to a deep surrender to reality from this place of surrender. I write about the ineffable if you want to examine with me what it means to be awake and how to work with a huge amount of karma and egoic conditioning. Read on if you want to know how to work with repetitive difficult emotions with anxiety and pain with a career, kids, and relationships. Read on if you want to examine what life before, during, and after awakening is. What enlightenment is beyond ancient mythological or a dogmatic understandings. Read on if you are compelled to examine with me what it means to be human and divine not in some philosophical sense but in the context of a down to earth awakened practicality. What follows are a collection of reflections, teachings, writings, and personal experiences written over the period of many years that weave together what this radical shift called awakening is. Life is ever unfolding, ever changing, and the divine expression of our humanity is never fully worked out yet. If we want to be fully free we must be willing to love and embrace all of life even our very own egoic nature which paradoxically is the divine as well. No aspect of life is outside of divinity. Many books are written from a perspective of impersonal enlightenment. I wanted to share both the impersonal and personal because that is what it is like to be human whether we are a Buddha or someone lost in pain and suffering. We all have some degree of a personal egoic nature. It is important to include both our humanity and our divinity. We have denied one or the other for ages but both are God. This work is an effort to create a deep understanding of what it is like to be human and awake. Join me in this exploration.

Based on interviews with 11 individuals who met the criteria for participation, data were collected on the experience of transcending the self. The data depicted in depth personal accounts gathered through tape-recorded interviews, letters, poetry, self-interviews, and journal writings. Findings revealed that self-transcendence is a spiritual journey of leaving self, finding self, merging self with God, and reconnection to divine self. Analysis of the data revealed eleven essential themes of the experience: 1. Being in between, 2. Being in the light of opening, 3. Being in trance/asleep, 4. Being in the shadow of discovery, 5. Being awake and present, 6. Being one with, 7. Being with spirit, 8. Being in love and compassion, 9. Being in connection with the divine, 10. Knowing thy will be done, not my will, and 11. Being co-creator. A qualitative model using heuristic methodology developed by Moustakas guided the research through six phases: autobiographical connections to the question, pertinent literature review, descriptions of research model, methods and procedures, used data analysis and synthesis, and implications and applications. Summary data included presentations of exemplary depictions and portraits of self-transcendence, a composite depiction representing all 11 co-researchers, and a creative synthesis of the meaning and essence of spirituality and self-transcendence. Societal, professional, educational, and personal implications, limitations of the study, and possibilities for future study and research were presented.
