the manuscript prepared with the aim to explore the possibilities of correlation between communication strategies and interactional skills i am glad to share the analysis and results of the research exercise conducted with the help of my 40 students who though expressed their happiness over having experienced motivation towards english speaking throughout the study actually made the whole journey of research possible i am optimistic towards further implications of the study as i am sure the clusters of communication strategies and interactional skills observed as a part of my study can be further explored as the pathway to improved speaking skills of the esl learners

this book explores the series of issues that emerge at the intersection of disability care and family law disability studies is an area of increasing academic interest in addition to a subject in its own right there has been growing concern to ensure that mainstream subjects diversify and include marginalised voices including those of disabled people family law in modern times is often based on an able bodied autonomous norm but can fit less well with the complexities of living with disability in response this book addresses a range of important and highly topical issues whether care proceedings are used too often in cases where parents have disabilities how the law should respond to children who care for disabled parents and the care of older family members with disabilities it also considers the challenges posed by the un convention on the rights of persons with disabilities particularly around the different institutional and state responsibilities captured in the convention and around decision making for both disabled adults and children this interdisciplinary collection with contributors from law criminology sociology and social policy as well as from policy and activist backgrounds will appeal to academic family lawyers and disability scholars as well as students interested in issues around family law disability and care
