As a young pastor, William Branham struggled to understand his peculiar life. Why was he the only minister in town who saw visions when God first called him into nationwide evangelism in 1936? He refused only to pay dearly for his mistake by losing his wife and daughter to tuberculosis. The visions continued, and ministers told him that these visions came from Satan. Desperation finally drove him to seek God in the wilderness, where he came face to face with a supernatural being. The angel gave him a commission from God to take a gift of divine healing to the peoples of the world. When William Branham questioned whether the people would believe an angel had really met him, the angel said he would be given two supernatural signs to prove his calling; then they would have to believe and believe they did.
