challenging conventional notions about the place of women in muslim societies the bihishti zewar heavenly ornaments gives life to the themes of religious and social reform that have too often been treated in the abstract this instructional guidebook used by the world's largest population of muslims is a vital source for those interested in modern indian social and intellectual history in islamic reform and in conceptions of gender and women's roles the bihishti zewar was written in northern india in the early 1900s by a revered muslim scholar and spiritual guide maulana ashraf ali thanawi 1864 1943 to instruct muslim girls and women in religious teachings proper behavior and prudent conduct of their everyday lives in so doing it sets out the core of a reformist version of islam that has become increasingly prominent across muslim societies during the past hundred years throughout the work nothing is more striking than the extent to which the book takes women and men as essentially the same in contrast to european works directed toward women at this time its rich descriptions of the everyday life of the relatively privileged classes in turn of the century north india provide information on issues of personality formation as well as on family life social relations household management and encounters with new institutions and inventions barbara metcalf has carefully selected those sections of the bihishti zewar that best illustrate the themes of reformist thought about god the person society and gender she provides a substantial introduction to the text and to each section as well as detailed annotations challenging conventional notions about the place of women in muslim societies the bihishti zewar heavenly ornaments gives life to the themes of religious and social reform that have too often been treated in the abstract this instructional guid ashraf ali thanawi 1863 1943 was one of the most prominent religious scholars in islamic history author of over a thousand books on different aspects of islam his work sought to defend the islamic scholarly tradition and to articulate its authority in an age of momentous religious and political change in this authoritative biography muhammad qasim zaman offers a comprehensive and highly accessible account of thanawi's multifaceted career and thought whilst also providing a valuable introduction to islam in modern south asia in south asia as elsewhere the category of the public has come under increased scholarly and popular scrutiny in recent years to better understand this current conjuncture we need a fuller understanding of the specifically south asian history of the term to that end this book surveys the modern indian public across multiple historical contexts and sites with contributions from leading scholars of south asia in anthropology history literary studies and religious studies as a whole this volume highlights the complex genealogies of the public in the indian subcontinent during the colonial and postcolonial eras showing in particular how british notions of the public intersected with south asian forms of publicity two principal methods or approaches the genealogical and the typological have characterised this scholarship this book suggests more in the mode of genealogy that the category of the public has been closely linked to the sub continental history of political liberalism also discussed is how the studies collected in this volume challenge some of liberalism s key presuppositions about the public and its relationship to law and religion the deoband movement a revivalist movement within sunni islam that quickly spread from colonial india to pakistan afghanistan bangladesh and even the united kingdom and south africa has been poorly understood and sometimes feared despite being one of the most influential muslim revivalist movements of the last two centuries deoband s connections to the taliban have dominated the attention it has received from scholars and policy makers alike revival from below offers an important corrective reorienting our understanding of deoband around its global reach which has profoundly shaped the movement s history in particular the author tracks the origins of deoband s controversial critique of sufism how this critique travelled through deobandi networks to south africa as well as the movement s efforts to keep traditionally educated islamic scholars ulama at the center of muslim public life the result is a nuanced account of this global religious network that argues we cannot fully understand deoband without understanding the complex modalities through which it spread beyond south asia knowledge of ahadith is essential in an effort to understand islam they contain rules and regulations when implemented would give cause to a better understanding of everyday life this is applicable to the individual of a society and also to the society as a whole the messages within the ahadith are for the benefit of both individual and society among many missions of the prophet peace be upon him one was to set a pattern of conduct the conduct of the last messenger peace be upon him can be found in the voluminous sahihs we should make an attempt to abide by these rules it is unnecessary to mention that research of islam is beyond the scope of a single individual a task unattainable in a man s lifetime not to say impossible to narrow my scope i had decided to restrict myself to ahadith even this is a large area of study within islam i decided on making a small collection of ahadith this decision resulted in a minor project that essentially consisted of reading diverse islamic literature and reading different aspects of islam i could of course have bought one of many voluminous compilations of ahadith but i was convinced that i would learn more by finding and compiling them myself and indeed it has been a most fruitful experience during the compilation i was becoming aware of the meaning and importance of ahadith and soon realised that others too could benefit from this compilation with this in mind i was determined to share this collection with my fellow muslims all ahadith in this collection have been so to say copied from my source a every hadith is followed by the arabic source it can be found in e g bukhari muslim along with the source i have written it from e g sayings of muhammad by prof ghazi ahmad if the reader feels uncertain about a particular hadith she he can easily trace it to my source all the footnotes in the ahadith are not my insertions but the author s of my sources the titles which are given to the ahadith are also titles found in my source they too are not my insertions the same applies for brackets or found within some ahadith these comments do not apply to the titles marked as introduction and introduction to ahadith the ahadith are all randomly compiled the ahadith have been written down as i have encountered them in relevant literature since i have used different literature there have come cases where two authors use the same title e i marriage hence the title will appear twice this is not to be regarded as a misprint there is no personal preference as to the choice of authors i have obtained them from libraries and the local mosques a problem which was encountered was when two authors wrote on the same subject matter but from different sahihs both sahihs had their own wordings but giving the same meaning i have tried to keep these sort of ahadith to a minimal as i wished to have as many diverse topics as possible faith knowledge marriage sex divorce rights of wives husbands and hospitality are a couple of areas covered in this compilation i have to the very best of my abilities tried to be as careful as possible when writing from the source this in order not to endanger the real meaning of the ahadith nor to give cause to misinterpretations as far as spellings are concerned i have thoroughly checked it the spellings of arabic names and places have been written exactly as i have encountered them in the source one of my sources hayaat ul muslimen written by mohammad ashraf ali thanvi has consistently used the term rasulullah when addressing prophet mohammad peace be upon him the arabic term sallallahu alayhi wasallam has also been used throughout the book for the ease of non muslim readers i have replaced the arabic rasulullah by muhammad and sallallahu alayhi wasallam by may the blessings and peace of allah be upon him i have treated similarly the terms radiallahu anhu and radiallahu anha they have been replaced by allah be pleased with him and allah be pleased with her i have used the term peace be upon him throughout the compilation as most authors have used similar attributes the same author has also mentioned the narrators arabic names for most ahadith i have done likewise islamic mysticism was contested from the formative period of islam till the present criticism of and opposition to mystical conceptions of islam and their adherents constitute an integral part of an ongoing debate inside the islamic tradition controversies and polemics concerning islamic mysticism often shaped and coincided with socio political configurations this volume results from a collective effort by a group of islamicists and area specialists with a variety of disciplinary orientations to arrive at a comprehensive view of these controversies and polemics wherever and whenever found the thirty five contributions and the introduction are united in their historicising approach while taking into account the wider socio political context detailed indexes facilitate consultation of the work and give it an added value as work of reference and research tool
