this book examines the operating of cultural work in postcolonial nairobi from the view that it drives modernity survival and processes of empowerment it depicts a city of global and spatial aspirations divided by a past that transcends its present it is a neo colonial and acquisitive city western cultural institutions dominate the marketplace an associative aspect is the gendered city space streets bars pubs which is overwhelmingly masculine the book demonstrates that women s marginalisation impacts variously on the city s texts its fiction theatre and the iconography of the matatu vehicle the major theme of the book is the struggle for cultural recognition and authority strategies of social and political accommodation coalesce both creatively and antagonistically in this formulation of kenyan self identification over the past decade there has been a growing awareness in sub sahara africa that institutions of governance are critical to the achievement of sustainable human development these institutions also play a crucial role in the promotion of democracy and partnership building in all areas that are essential to the advancement of developmental goals the international learning centre ilc at the university of nairobi with support from the great lakes colleges association glca and kalamazoo college brought together leading scholars from the universities of dar es salaam makerere and several kenyan institutions these were joined by a group of twenty scholars drawn from the collaborating universities and colleges in the united states of america east africa in transition images institutions and identities was the theme of the 2001 symposium the goal was to challenge the common thinking about countries undergoing transition to re examine the process of change as it occurs in all areas of modern life several questions have been put forward in the book chief among these questions is what in a holistic manner informs and moulds the east african identity is it the shared colonial heritage including the legacy of artificial political borders is it a product of ethnicity and or home locale could it be the similarity among the languages within the region is it the commonality of the struggle of all the peoples of east africa to take their place in the global village is identity the product of self actualization or a local response to global pressures outline of swahili literature is a major study and reference guide of modern prose and drama in swahili one of the largest languages of sub saharan africa this second edition of the eponymous study first published in 1989 is extensively revised and enlarged it contains new and updated information mapping trends and writers in addition the book contains a resourceful bio bibliographical index of modern swahili writers and an annotated bibliography of all known works in swahili modern prose and drama published from the late 1950s up to 2008
