gitanjali the book of poems for which tagore was awarded the nobel prize for literature in 1913 was in fact a collection of songs much of what tagore experienced joy and frustration grief and devastation was expressed through music and during his lifetime tagore was most renowned for his songwriting the distinction of his musical oeuvre lay in the near perfect balance he achieved between the evocative lyrics the matching melody and the rhythmic structure in which each song was bound the singer and his song is a unique biography of tagore with music as its leitmotif it traces the musical journey of the poet with anecdotes and allusions and includes translations of some of his most resonant songs written in elegant prose and accompanied by relevant photographs and paintings this highly original book is a fitting tribute to tagore s enduring musical legacy this interaction led to the sharing of my urdu verse with shanazar one morning i was pleasantly surprised to see a translation of one of my urdu poems by him on facebook along with a short message saying that he wished to translate and publish some of my poems into english one by one he translated sixty five of my poems from my books narendra ke liye aasman dar aasman and shigaf he chose only the nazms poems for rendition in english leaving aside the ghazals which in his own words are untranslatable as it is almost impossible to capture their rhythm nuance and flavour in translation through this translation of my verse i hope to share my thoughts and emotions with a wider audience
