creativity is said to be the fuel of the contemporary economy dynamic industries such as film music television and design have changed the fortunes of entire cities from nashville to los angeles barcelona to brisbane and beyond yet creativity remains mercurial it is at the heart of industrial innovation and can attract investment but it is also an intangible personal quality and experience what exactly constitutes creativity drawing on examples as diverse as postcard design classical music landscape art tattooing aboriginal hip hop and rock sculpture this book seeks to explore and redefine creativity as both economic and cultural phenomenon creativity also has a peculiar geography beyond hollywood creativity is evident in suburban rural and remote places a quotidian vernacular eclectic enterprise in seeking to redefine the creative industries this book brings together geographers historians sociologists cultural studies scholars and media communications experts to explore creativity in diverse places outside major cities these are places that are physically and or metaphorically remote are small in population terms or which because of old industrial legacies are assumed by others to be unsophisticated or marginal in an imaginary geography of creativity this book reveals the richness and depth the challenges and surprises of being creative beyond city limits this book was originally published as a special issue of australian geographer examining a range of contemporary anglophone texts this book opens up postcolonial and transcultural studies for discussions of visibility and vision it argues that the preoccupation with visual practices in anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world the representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed in 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as michael ondaatje derek walcott salman rushdie david dabydeen and noviolet bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how anglophone fiction models alternative modes of representation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange
