this book faithfully represents the teaching of roman catholicism on the church s doctrinal authority while pointing to areas where there remains a gap between an ecclesiological vision of the church informed by vatican ii and the popular understanding and concrete exercise of that authority in the life of the church today canon and criterion in christian theology provides an original and important narrative on the significance of canon in the christian tradition standard accounts of canon reduce canon to scripture and treat scripture as a criterion of truth scripture is then related in positive or negative ways to tradition reason and experience such projects involve a misreading of the meaning and content of canon they locate the canonical heritage of the church within epistemology and abraham charts the fatal consequences of this move from the fathers to modern feminist theology in the process he shows that the central epistemological concerns of the enlightenment have christian origins and echoes he also shows that the crucial developments of theology from the reformation onwards involve extraordinary efforts to fix the foundations of faith this trajectory is now exhausted theologically and spiritually hence the door is opened for a recovery of the full canonical heritage of the early church and for fresh work on the epistemology of theology is authority reserved for those with a specific calling to leadership who holds power in the church does authority have limits are teaching and preaching the most important practices of authority our understanding and misunderstanding of authority has significant implications for our individual and corporate flourishing in a theology of authority christa mckirland challenges our assumptions about authority power and leadership with a focus on low church traditions she examines authority through the lens of analytic philosophy and biblical theology to offer a theological definition of authority she also tackles questions related to divine and human authority scripture and practices typically related to ordination preaching teaching serving communion baptizing church discipline and vision casting a theology of authority expands our understanding of authority recognizing the spirit's enablement of each member to fulfill their calling to spiritual maturity readers will gain a deeper understanding of the nuances of authority and power and how we relate to one another as siblings in christ in this book carnegie samuel calian who was baptized in the eastern tradition and raised a protestant promotes greater dialogue and exchange among christians of the east and west he seeks to make christians aware of the diversity of faith and offers suggestions and insight to this end authority is exercised in many ways and forms in the catholic church today by what authority offers a helpful introduction to the forms of church authority that are concerned with authentic christian belief gaillardetz gă lăr d□□ explains what it means to say that the bible is inspired how scripture and tradition are related to one another the role of the pope and bishops in preserving the christian faith the levels of church teaching authority how to deal with disagreements with church teaching the distinctive role of the theologians and the contribution of all the baptized in the formation of church teaching this book introduces readers to a basic understanding of the nature and exercise of authority in the catholic church as understood within the vision of the church offered by the second vatican council the chapters conclude by outlining disputed issues regarding the topic of that chapter and a select list of opportunities for further reading chapters in part one the authority of scripture and
