this commentary examines the convention concerning the protection of the world cultural and natural heritage the unesco world heritage convention fifty years after its adoption it explores the new challenges which have arisen in the management of world heritage sites and the convention s impact on the evolution of international heritage law catherine clay s persuasively argued and rigorously documented study examines women s friendships during the period between the two world wars building on extensive new archival research the book s organizing principle is a series of literary historical case studies that explore the practices meanings and effects of friendship within a network of british women writers who were all loosely connected to the feminist weekly periodical time and tide clay considers the letters and diaries as well as fiction poetry autobiographies and journalistic writings of authors such as vera brittain winifred holtby storm jameson naomi mitchison and stella benson to examine women s friendships in relation to two key contexts the rise of the professional woman writer under the shadow of literary modernism and historic shifts in the cultural recognition of lesbianism crystallized by the well of loneliness trial in 1928 while clay s study presents substantial evidence to support the crucial role close and enduring friendships played in women s professional achievements it also boldly addresses the limitations and denials of these relationships producing biographies of friendship untold in existing author studies her book also challenges dominant accounts of women s friendships and advances new ways for thinking about women s friendship in contemporary debates this unique book provides a multidisciplinary review of current climate change research projects at universities around the globe offering perspectives from all of the natural and social sciences numerous universities worldwide pursue state of the art research on climate change focussing on mitigation of its effects as well as human adaptation to it however the 2015 paris 21st conference of the parties of the united nations framework convention on climate change unfccc cop 21 demonstrated that there is still much room for improvement in the role played by universities in international negotiations and decision making on climate change to date few scientific meetings have provided multidisciplinary perspectives on climate change in which researchers across the natural and social sciences could come together to exchange research findings and discuss methods relating to climate change mitigation and adaption studies as a result the published literature has also lacked a broad perspective this book fills that gap and is of interest to all researchers and policy makers concerned with global climate change regardless of their area of expertise
