Starting treatment with children and adolescents provides therapists with a time-tested framework for treatment and a moment-by-moment guide to the first few sessions with a new patient. In twelve remarkable case studies, verbatim transcripts of individual play therapy sessions are brought to life through running commentary on techniques and theory and a fine-grained analysis of what worked, what didn't, and what else the clinician could have done to make the session as productive as possible. Clinicians will come away from the book with a unique window into how other therapists actually work, as well as new tools for engaging children and adolescents in process-oriented treatment. They'll also be guided through an exploration of common questions such as: How else could I have handled that situation? What other paths could I have tried? Where might those other paths have led? What treatment strategies are most advantageous to my patient's growth and to my own?

Soul Trip is a compilation of poetry and blogs interwoven with story about waking up. Soul Trip is the first in a series of three books that document the intensity of emotion, thought, and questioning that occurs when the perception of life begins to drastically change. Soul Trip accounts deep extremes of sorrow and pain and seeing such emotions as the true catalysts for living an authentic life that lead to finding one's bliss. Soul Trip shares this experience through looking at love and heartbreak differently, finding who you are as you analyze who you were and seeking fullness in the expression of one's heart. Soul Trip poetically illustrates the pain, rejection, disappointment, sorrow, and misunderstanding that leads to the love inside oneself so we can experience just who we are in an unknown yet whole way in awakening, letting go of what you really think love is, trusting whatever comes your way, and finding beauty in the intensity and sorrow of life because these are leading you to you. This is the purpose of Soul Trip.
