in the creation of god jacob hartmann presents a profound investigation into the evolution of religious consciousness and the conception of divinity rather than a theological discourse the book is an anthropological and philosophical exploration that weaves historical analysis with contemplative insight employing a particularly eloquent and convincing literary style hartmann challenges the reader with meticulous research and narrative depth the work is grounded in the rich traditions of religious scholarship engaging critically with significant thought from a pantheon of philosophical minds thus situating itself securely within the broader literary context of metaphysical and existential inquiries into the nature of the divine and its role in human society as a thinker jacob hartmann is known for his incisive intellect and his ability to intertwine academic rigor with cultural history the impetus behind the creation of god likely stems from hartmann s lifelong fascination with the nexus of culture religion and consciousness his work reflects a deep seated drive to understand how mankind s perception of a higher power is constructed and the influence this holds over our collective cultural and ethical frameworks his scholarship is both reflection and critique of the enduring human quest to understand the unknown forces that shape our world this reissue from digicat publishing meticulously reproduced for modern readers will undoubtedly captivate those intrigued by the study of religion and spirituality recommended for scholars students of the humanities and intellectually curious minds the creation of god offers a rich exploration of mankind s quest to understand and articulate the numinous with hartmann s masterful assembly of ideas and historical contexts the book stands not only as a significant cultural document but as an enduring contribution to the discourse on the origins and impact of religious thought hyun joo kim claims that bonhoeffer transforms and reconstructs the augustinian doctrine of original sin by shifting the hamartiological premise from the doctrine of god to the doctrine of the church based on his lutheran resources in bonhoeffer s view augustine s doctrine of original sin does not fully relate the doctrine of sin to the responsibility of the saints in order to reform augustinian hamartiology bonhoeffer appropriates augustine s notion of the church as the whole christ totus christus which is located in augustine s ecclesiology kim explicates how augustine relates his epistemological premises in his christianized platonism to his formulation of the doctrine of original sin and examines how luther s christocentric standpoint transforms augustine s anthropology and ultimately leads luther to his relational hamartiology kim contends that bonhoeffer s later hamartiology and ethics contain the most distinctive characteristics of bonhoeffer s doctrine of sin in that he not only incorporates both the active and passive dimensions of sin but also intensifies his continuing notion of vicarious representative action towards the church community
