publisher description

this collection of essays surveys some of the artistic productions by female figures who stood at the forefront of italian modernity in the fields of literature photography and even the theatre in order to explore how artistic engagement in women informed their views on and reactions to the challenges of a changing society and a disinhibiting intellectual landscape however one other objective takes on a central role in this volume that of opening a window on the re definition of the subjectivity of the self that occurred during an intriguing and still not fully studied period of artistic and societal changes in particular the present volume aims to define a female italian modernism which can be seen as complementary and not necessarily in opposition to its male counterpart this book focuses on the different forms in which authorship came to be expressed in eighteenth century italian publishing it analyses both the affirmation of the author function and above all its paradoxical opposite the use of anonymity a centuries old practice present everywhere in europe but often neglected by scholarship the reasons why authors chose to publish their works anonymously were manifold including prudence fear of censorship modesty fear of personal criticism or simple divertissement in many cases it was an ethical choice especially for ecclesiastics the italian case provides a key perspective on the study of anonymity in the european context contributing to the analysis of an overlooked topic in academic studies
