this examination of the mythification of al asan al ba r shows how the transformation of his historical person into a complete myth was accomplished along with the groups responsible for making him say and do what legitimizes their own views and practices

this clearly written text explores the rational theology of islam the conflict between the defenders of god and the defenders of reason and the controversy s historical roots islam and international law explores the complex and multi faceted relationship of international law and islam both as a religion and a legal order current debates on sharia islam and the west often suffer from prejudice platitudes and stereotypes on both sides the present book seeks to engage such self centrism by providing a plurality of perspectives both in terms of interdisciplinary research and geographic backgrounds the volume thus brings together 20 contributions from scholars who cover pressing issues in fields such as the use of force in islamic international law islam s contribution to the development of diplomacy and the rule of law controversies as to the role of the individual human rights and international criminal law as well as islamic visions of world order in a globalizing world contributors awn s al khasawneh asma afsaruddin mohd hisham mohd kamal necmettin kizilkaya muhammad munir labeeb ahmed bsoul khaled ramadan bashir harriet rudolph irmgard marboe abdulmumini a oba javaid rehman lorenz langer abdul ghafur hamid khin maung sein mashood a baderin markus beham matthias cernusca maurits s berger gregor novak muddathir abdel rahim debate on freedom of religion as a human right takes place not only in the western world but also in muslim communities throughout the world for muslims concerned for this freedom one of the major difficulties is the punishment for apostasy death for those who desert islam this book argues that the law of apostasy and its punishment by death in islamic law is untenable in the modern period apostasy conflicts with a variety of foundation texts of islam and with the current ethos of human rights in particular the freedom to choose one s religion demonstrating the early development of the law of apostasy as largely a religio political tool the authors show the diversity of opinion among early muslims on the punishment highlighting the substantial ambiguities about what constitutes apostasy the problematic nature of some of the key textual evidence on which the punishment of apostasy is based and the neglect of a vast amount of clear qur anic texts in favour of freedom of religion in the construction of the law of apostasy examining the significant challenges the punishment of apostasy faces in the modern period inside and outside muslim communities exploring in particular how apostasy and its punishment is dealt with in a multi religious muslim majority country malaysia and the challenges and difficulties it faces there the authors discuss arguments by prominent muslims today for an absolute freedom of religion and for discarding the punishment of apostasy includes entries for maps and atlases
