man know thyself is perhaps one of the world s oldest and most important sayings this adage was originally coined by imhotep the world s first multi genius and perhaps the greatest creative mortal individual who ever lived imhotep lived over five and a half thousand years ago from our present age it must be said immediately that imhotep was an african he is among our first notable ancestors considering imhotep's instruction it means that as individuals as a family collectively as a people a community a society or a nation we should know ourselves that is who we are this includes knowledge of who spawned us where we have been and where we currently are knowing this as our notable ancestor and grandmaster teacher baba dr john henrik clarke has said will tell us who we are and where we must get to who we are is dependent on who we were who we were should determine who we should be to emphasise the point marcus garvey another of our most important notable ancestors frequently reiterated this advice when he reminded us that our first obligation is to know ourselves he told us that we should make our knowledge about us so complete so as to make it impossible for others to take advantage of us he told us that in order to know ourselves we must know who our ancestors were and what they achieved we would then realize who we are and what we are capable of achieving this is the meaning of the african adage and sankofa symbol of looking back in order to go forward the importance of knowing our ancestors has been summed up in an old native american saying that it is the spirit of our ancestors that should guide our path there is a sense however that africans have forgotten our ancestors because of this there is no spirit to guide us and so africans are lost and confused the roots of african spirituality and culture have been made redundant yet as dr clarke points out the umbilicord that tied africans to our spiritual and cultural roots have only been stretched it has never been broken it is for africans to come to this realization and to rediscover the spirit of our ancestors this volume lists some of our notable ancestors in the hope that knowledge about them and their achievements will aid some of us in understanding where we have been who we presently are and consequently who we must become ultimately it is hoped that we may use this knowledge to reconnect with the spirit of our ancestors and let them be our guide this volume is based on the truth about africans and therefore correcting what is told about us this corrective knowledge of us is important because as imhotep said know the truth and the truth shall set you free this means being free to interpret our own story and to define who we are this is crucial because although history is a witness to the truths history has been stolen by others who have hidden the truths about us history has never been true or kind to africans and therefore it cannot tell us about us yet as peter tosh intimated we cannot come to a consciousness of ourselves of who we are if we do not know the truths about us history has been described as the queen of the academic subjects so important is history that it is said that whoever controls history controls the future in one sense education in general and history in particular is about teaching us who we are history teaches who we are so as to help us to know where we belong in our community or society africans cannot know where we belong in society however because our story has been told by others those who own history africans are therefore unaware of who we are because what is known about us is not the truth about us the story of africans the oldest people on earth like the history of the world is taught by others yet these others came into the world thousands of years after africans had already established great civ

i wrote man know thy self through the inspiration of the holy spirit who guides leads and teaches me the things of god man know thy self teaches you who you are and how you operate we are created in the image and likeness of god and we re falling way short of the mark jesus came to show us the way and it s essential we follow because he is the way the only way man know thy self shows you how to rightly divide the word of truth it s the truth that sets you free it teaches you who you are in christ jesus and that you need to be born again and fi lled with the holy spirit in these last days if we are planning to keep our salvation we must know that it is imperative to know to be absent from the body is to be present with the lord thank you
