Joseph Anderson has been successful in finding brides for his two eldest sons in this book he finds the perfect bride for his youngest son Mark. Mark has a billion dollar ranch operation that takes many employees to run successfully. He loses his cook and leaves it to his father to find a new one. Little does Mark know that Joseph is far more interested in her marriage potential than her cooking skills. Luckily he finds a woman who can cook and will make the perfect bride for his son. Emily Jackson is on the run from people who want to take her five-year-old son from her. She ends up in a small town in Washington and is excited to find an ad in the paper for a live-in cook. When she starts work at the beautiful ranch, sparks fly with her new boss who is sexier than any cowboy has the right to be. She does not want to risk having an affair with her boss and losing her job, so she will fight the attraction until passion overcomes them. Both take the journey with Mark and his family as the youngest Anderson finds his bride.

Stone Lachlan never thought marriage, especially one of convenience, would be this complex. After all, he and Faith Harrell had agreed to marry for purely practical reasons, so there should be no question about the terms of their relationship. But resisting a young woman as appealing as Faith was like trying to win a war without any weapons, and it seemed the harder they fought, not to fall in love, the closer they came to losing the battle
