this is the second book in a three volume series that will cover the entire book of revelation in awe inspiring detail expounding and expanding on familiar verses in god s word that have been misunderstood and misconstrued for many years in this volume the authors explore the first half of revelation from the perspective they established so clearly in volume i that of a hebrew god speaking through a hebrew believer to an audience that was intimately familiar with the hebrew language culture customs and concepts that form both the literal and the metaphorical foundation for vast portions of revelation jacques b doukhan an adventist scholar of jewish heritage mines the old testament to uncover new meaning in the battle of armageddon and the millennium he ties the symbolism of the book to the sanctuary service of ancient israel showing how the seven sections of the book correspond to the seven feasts of judaism he argues that the prophecies of revelation foretell the eventual discrediting of secularism egypt the resurgence of conservative religion babylon and a final coalition of the two movements in the climactic events before the second coming of christ to defeat sin and save his people written to messianic jews in the first century the book of hebrews understood properly through jewish eyes edifies and encourages all this epistle is one of the outstanding theological treatises in the new testament this book teaches the message of this important letter in a fresh new way dr stuart sacks himself a messianic jew offers insights into hebrews that only a jewish believer in yeshua can give this volume delineates the link between judaism and christianity between old and the new testaments and calls christians to reexamine their hebrew roots so as to effect a more authentically biblical lifestyle
