lines may divide us but hope will unite us nine year old bruno knows nothing of the final solution and the holocaust he is oblivious to the appalling cruelties being inflicted on the people of europe by his country all he knows is that he has moved from berlin to a desolate area where he has no one to play with until he meets shmuel. Shmuel lives in a strange parallel existence on the other side of the adjoining wire fence where everyone wears a uniform of striped pyjamas despite the wire fence separating them the two boys become best friends as they grow closer. Bruno starts to learn the terrible truth that lies beyond the fence and what life is like for his friend. John Boyne's classic novel explores the friendship and loss of innocence of Bruno and Shmuel during one of the worst points in history.

Discover an extraordinary tale of innocence, friendship and the horrors of war. Some things are just sitting there minding their own business waiting to be discovered like America and other things are probably better off left alone. Nine year old Bruno has a lot of things on his mind who is the fury why did he make them leave their nice home in Berlin to go to out with and who are all the sad people in striped pyjamas on the other side of the fence the grown ups won't explain so Bruno decides there is only one thing for it he will have to explore this place alone what he discovers is a new friend a boy with the very same birthday a boy in striped pyjamas but why can't they ever play together a small wonder of a book guardian backstory read an interview with the author John Boyne and learn all about the Second World War in Germany.
