this study demonstrates how agnon combined traditional hebrew lore modern literary devices and especially highly crafted dream sequences revealing subconscious motivations behind apparently fortuitous acts and decisions thus creating a unique narrative form reflecting the indeterminacy of human behaviour shmuel yosef agnon 1888 1970 winner of the nobel prize for literature in 1966 and the undisputed master of the hebrew novel still remains largely an unknown or even misunderstood figure Agnon's innovation was to construct an intricate dialectic between Hebrew tradition and the modern predicament thereby producing a very distinctive mode of modernist narrative. Agnon deployed a technique of rich allusiveness drawn from traditional Hebrew lore and language using free association especially by means of imaginative dream sequences designed to unveil the ambivalent but fateful meanings in the apparently inconsequential events and thoughts which determine the lives of his characters. This book explores the methods and materials of Agnon's art so as to provide the English reader with insight into his unique fictional world and it proposes a fresh approach to the reading of Agnon which will also be of interest to those familiar with his work and the crucial literature on it.

Today many people from all faiths are exploring the Kabbalah. What was once controversial and esoteric teachings from medieval Jewish mystics now is becoming one of the latest spiritual trends sweeping across America. The book has a completely revised introduction and several substantially revised chapters making key ideas less abstract and more comprehensible to readers and now includes a section called the 10 main conceptual principles.

This book presents a comprehensive overview of global courtship and marriage customs from ancient history to contemporary society demonstrating the vast differences as well as the similarities across all of human culture. This second edition of Marriage Customs of the World examines historical context, social significance and current trends and controversies of matrimony in the Western world as well as other cultures. Apart from detailing the ceremonies from specific countries, the book identifies specific elements of the wedding event and discusses them in a comparative manner showcasing the similarities across cultures. The new content in this work includes additional information on courtship and how future spouses are found in other cultures, marriage in art, cinema, theater and poetry, wedding bands, forced marriages and shotgun weddings, New Year's weddings, legislation regarding marriage and engagement practices. Entries carried over from the first edition have been revised and updated as well. With its broad scope and consideration of contemporary issues alongside historical information, this work will be ideal for high school and undergraduate students, scholars of anthropology, social studies and history, and general readers.

The late Miriam Roshwald here examines the role of the nineteenth-century ghetto or shtetl through the eyes of three contemporaneous Jewish writers: Karl Emil Franzos (1848-1904), Sholom Aleichem (aka Sholom Rabinovitz, 1859-1916) and Shmuel Yosef Agnon (aka Samuel Josef Czaczkes, 1888-1970).
