manuel puig s masterful and ironic detective novel concerns the abduction of a woman an impending murder and the dim memories of a thousand old glamour queens garbo dietrich veronica lake rita hayworth all combining to make a powerful portrait of two decidedly unglamorous lives gladys hebe d onofrio a lonely 35 year old sculptor tormented by her fantasies and perpetually in search of the ideal lover and leo druscovich an outwardly confident and successful art critic deeply troubled by a terrible guilt that surfaces in his repeated sexual failures taking on exchanging and growing into the roles of victim and criminal their lives presented through a variety of different kinds of evidence lists scribbled notes transcripts one sided interrogations these two lost souls gradually find themselves entirely dependent on one another and heading towards precisely the sort of violent ending a detective novel demands this is the first biography now available in paperback of manuel puig 1932 1990 argentinian author of kiss of the spider woman and pioneer of high camp suzanne jill levine his principal english translator draws upon years of friendship as well as copious research and interviews for many serious readers robert alter writes in his preface the novel still matters and i have tried here to suggest some reasons why that should be so in his wide ranging discussion alter examines the imitation of reality in fiction to find out why mimesis has become problematic yet continues to engage us deeply as readers alter explores very different sorts of novels from the self conscious artifices of Sterne and Nabokov to what seem to be more realistic texts such as those of Dickens Flaubert John Fowles and the early Norman Mailer attention is also given to such individual critics as Edmund Wilson and Alfred Kazin and to current critical schools in alter's essays a particular book or movement or juxtaposition of writers provides the occasion for the exploration of a general intellectual issue the scrutiny of well chosen passages the joining of images or themes or ideas the associative and intuitive processes that lead to the right phrase and the right loop of syntax for the matter at hand all these come together unexpectedly to illuminate both the text in question and the general issue recent discussions of mimesis in fiction generally proceed from a single thesis by contrast motives for fiction offers an empirical approach attempting to define mimesis in its various guises by careful critical readings of a heterogeneous sampling of literary texts intelligent and good humored the book is also old fashioned enough to wonder whether mimesis might not be a task or responsibility to which much contemporary fiction has not proved entirely adequate psychoanalysis and narrative analyzes narrative in literary fiction film and autobiography through different psychoanalytic lenses including gender and socio cultural perspectives this book aims to demonstrate how fictionists and film makers have intuitively developed through their own creativity many of the psychoanalytic discoveries about the human mind subverting the usual direction of applied psychoanalysis the book goes from creativity to psychoanalysis and focuses on four internationally known Argentine writers Jorge Luis Borges Julio Cortázar Manuel Puig and Luisa Valenzuela two Argentine women filmmakers Lucrecia Martel and Lucía Puenzo and French essayist and writer Serge Doubrovsky this volume will be of interest to students and academics interested in autobiography and autofiction décio torres cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation in doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French ciné roman and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America the main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to pop art and other postmodern cultural trends his prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis Angelical bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations cruz shows how in Puig's hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire
