some say that private law ought to correct wrongs or to protect rights others say that private law ought to maximise social welfare or to minimise social cost in this book emmanuel voyiakis claims that private law ought to make our responsibilities to others depend on the opportunities we have to affect how things will go for us drawing on the work of hla hart and tm scanlon he argues that private law principles that require us to bear certain practical burdens in our relations with others are justified as long as those principles provide us with certain opportunities to choose what will happen to us and having those opportunities is something we have reason to value the book contrasts this value of choice account with its wrong and social cost based rivals and applies it to familiar problems of contract and tort law including whether liability should be negligence based or stricter whether insurance should matter in the allocation of the burden of repair how far private law should make allowance for persons of limited capacities when a contract term counts as unconscionable or unfair and when tort law should hold a person vicariously liable for another s mistakes as our aging population grows ever larger it is increasingly important to understand how adults age and what we can do to provide up to date care to ensure their well being as an integral part of society leslie morgan and suzanne kunkel understand that this phenomenon is about much more than just the physical or biological aspects of growing older and have put together a comprehensive text on the impact of society and sociology on the aging process use this text to explore the diversity of the aging population and dispel the major stereotypes surrounding the elderly learn about aging through all the layers of social context from family life to politics and economics and through this approach come to see how aging is more than just an individual process it is a process that effects the direction of our society as a whole for the student sites of interest and key terms defined at the end of each chapter real life stories and essays on love sex music medicine and crime for the professor assignment ready reading in a one chapter a week format questions for discussion and review at each chapter end applying theory sections place the lesson of each chapter in a clear real world setting instructor s guide now available an instructor s manual for this textbook is available for those professors who have adopted aging society and the life course third edition and can verify a bookstore order of 7 or more copies please email our marketing department at marketing.springerpub.com if you have adopted this text as you will need a password to download the guide please provide the name and telephone number of the bookstore that ordered the textbooks a print version of the instructor s manual is also availabl
