john and christ administered baptism totins corpore submersione by the submission of the whole body the very word baptize signifies to immerse entirely and it is certain that immersion was the practice of the ancient church john calvin the greek word baptizo means immerse or plunge and the word baptisma means immersion martin luther immersion of the whole body was used from the beginning which expresses the force of the word baptize whence john baptized in a river it was afterward changed into sprinkling though it is uncertain when or by whom ulrich zwingli baptism is immersion in water philip melancthon it is true that there is no express command to baptize infants in the new testament no express record of the baptism of infants and no passages so stringently implying it that we must infer from them that infants were baptized b b
